

STATE OF MICHIGAN

CERTIFICATE OF PROCLAMATION

ON BEHALF OF THE PEOPLE OF MICHIGAN

I, Rick Snyder, governor of Michigan, do hereby proclaim
November 2018

PROJECT MANAGEMENT MONTH

WHEREAS, Project Management is the profession by which organizations, both public and private, plan, organize, secure and manage resources to clearly define and execute visions and goals; and,

WHEREAS, Project Management relates directly to the project-driven and project-based fields of architecture and construction, aerospace, defense, software development and computer networking, telecommunications, and many Michigan project-related industries and organizations; and,

WHEREAS, Project Managers and their teams are the dedicated professionals that lead and oversee various projects, and are responsible for accomplishing stated project objectives; and,

WHEREAS, Project-Based Learning helps our young people develop Project Management as a life skill preparing them for their world of work in the 21st century; and,

WHEREAS, Project Management can be an essential force for good in helping improve society to be more just, participatory and sustainable; and,

WHEREAS, during this month of November we join with the Project Management Institute – Great Lake Chapter, to raise awareness of the Project Management Profession in Michigan. We recognize Project Managers as key contributors to every aspect of industry in our great state of Michigan, and we encourage citizens to learn more about and explore Project Management career opportunities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rick Snyder, governor of Michigan, do hereby proclaim November 2018 as Project Management Month in Michigan.
